OPEN LETTER TO N. FLOYD TINKHAM

On the nights of January 17th and 18th Boy Scout Troop 53 camped on the land which you recently donated as a town forest. It's a beautiful spot with plenty of high ground and fine stands of pine and hardwood. Troop 53 thoroughly enjoyed the camp-out at the N. Floyd Tinkham Town Forest and we hope we'll be permitted to use it often in the future.

During the week-end, the troop cleared the trail into the forest so that it can be entered easily.

We are sure the townspeople, and particularly the future generations, will derive great pleasure from this forest. Your gift to the town was extremely generous and forward-looking. It is obvious evidence of your feeling of concern for the future of

VICTORY SOUP SNACK

It's "V" for Victory Season! The school athletes are going strong on the basketball court, in the hockey rink, and in the gymnasium. Even being a spectator takes a lot of energy, so when the game is over you'll cheer the home town rooters if you serve a warm-up "refresher" course.

Ask your friends what they enjoy in snacks and the answer is likely to be something to hold their hunger – easy to fix and eat. An ideal "meet-and-eat" celebration lineup should consist of a hearty soup with finger-food nibbles and brownies for those with a sweet tooth.

Serve the nibbles on skewers, a selection of cubes of cheese, stuffed olives and fancy pickles. Spear the skewers into an end of French bread or a cabbage head. Serve the soup in mugs with spoons to reach the last delicious bits and pieces.

VICTORY MIX-MATCH

1 can (4 ounces) Vienna sausages, drained
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed vegetable soup
1 cup water
¼ cup tomato juice
2 teaspoons instant minced onion

In skillet, brown sausages in butter. Stir in remaining ingredients. Heat, stirring now and then. 3 servings.

"ALL-AMERICAN" SOUP

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed chicken with rice soup
1 soup can water
½ cup cooked mixed vegetables
⅛ teaspoon poultry seasoning
Melba toast rounds spread with pimiento cheese spread

In saucepan, combine all ingredients except toast rounds. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish each serving with a toast round. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

On behalf of the boys of Troop 53 we wish to thank you for your generosity.

Yours very truly,

BUILDING CODE PROPOSAL IS LITTLE NOTED BUT CAN BE LONG REMEMBERED

Editorial - DCJ

Hearings on the proposed Building Code By-Law have been so well ignored that perhaps only a handful of Mattapoisett residents realize what is in the offing at the annual town meeting in Mattapoisett. This is the nucleus of the most all encompassing law ever to come before the Town. The zoning legislation which generated much interest and involvement of people does not even begin to effect the control over the citizens of Mattapoisett that this Building Code will if it is passed. Copies of the proposed building code by-law are available for the asking at the Mattapoisett Town Hall and this is a set of laws which should be thoroughly understood and explained by council before the citizens bind themselves by them. Once they are in force, it is for all time. Once they are in force, they will be added to endlessly, they will require permits, they will eventually require fees, they will specify in detail not only for new construction but for every repair of alteration for any existing building in the town. In short, this is complete control or eventually it will be. No one will be able to pick up a hammer without reference to the law. Section 4 states, "No building or structure shall be built, altered, moved or demolished unless a permit for the same has been issued by the inspector of Buildings, after he has been satisfactorily assured by plans, specifications or other instruments, filed with him, that the work will conform to the authorized requirements of the Town, except as follows:

An owner may make repairs on any building without a permit, provided that such repairs conform to all requirements of this code. The Inspector of Buildings shall have the right to inspect all such repairs.

An owner may construct, without a fee, any out building which shall net a size of 150 square feet of floor area. The inspector must be assured that the use of this structure will not violate any sections of the Town By-Laws."

Reading this one might say, "Well, this does except the weekend do-it-yourself carpenter doing the necessary repair that constantly needs attention in any home." Does it? Will you have a lawyer at your elbow to make a ruling? When this measure has finished gathering its hundreds of amendments, it will be necessary. There are hundreds of cities and towns which have Building Code laws which tie them to antiquated codes which prevent them from using modern materials and techniques. The minute this building code goes into law it requires conformity to a restrictive code some of which will never be updated.

At a time when it is almost impossible to get anyone to do repair work of any kind and when the average homeowner is forced to do his own small jobs and even the larger ones, residents will do well to take a long, hard look at a proposal which could severely restrict their freedom to do their own work. Every man who has ever swung a hammer should go to the Town Hall and pick up a copy of this proposed law and give it some study. Think ahead to the time when amendments to the code will fill a book. Then go over to New Bedford, which has a building code, take a look around at some of the moldering wrecks that house people. Then explain how Mattapoisett is going to benefit by tying the hands of the people who constantly work to improve their own property, partly out of pride of ownership and partly because they enjoy working with their own hands. Not only is this a matter of pride or enjoyment, but it is almost a matter of necessity at this time. Have you tried to get a carpenter to do a repair in the past six months? If so, I'll bet you're still waiting.

There will be soothing assurances from the proponents of this law that it will not interfere with the non-professional repair of property. I believe this just like I believed that the income surtax was intended to be temporary.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

I find many citizens are having second thoughts about the benefits the four-year term for top State officers were supposed to bring to us.

It sounded reasonable that they could give better service, if they did not have to campaign every two years.

So, what happens? At the end of the first two years of the first four-year term, Governor Volpe and Attorney General Richardson are off to the greener pastures of Washington, and we have as Governor a man who was soundly defeated for State Senator in the Cape-Plymouth District a few years ago.

And, whereas, the voters elected a Republican Attorney General, the Democrat-controlled Legislature has now put a Democrat in that office.

I feel let down to have no chance to vote on these two vacancies.

The Tower of Strength

"HISTORY OF FORT PHOENIX"
by Donald R. Bernard

With Major Israel Fearing being hailed as a hero, the retreating Red Coats rejoined their ships, anchored in the harbor, and on Monday, the 7th of September, sailed out of Bedford Harbor, However, advantage was taken to burn a large privateer ship on the stocks, and to send a small armament of boats, with two galleys, to destroy two or three vessels, which, being in the stream, the troops had not been able to set fire to. Passing out of Buzzards Bay into Vineyard Sound, through Quickses Hole, proved to be very difficult because of strong head winds. The fleet did not reach their intended destination, Holmes Harbor, Martha's Vineyard, until the 10th of September, 1778. The transports, with the light infantry grenadiers, and the thirty-third regiment, were anchored without the harbor. Their intention was to confiscate cattle which were badly needed by His Majesty's troops in New York.

On arrival in the harbor, the local citizenry sent persons on board the "Carysfort" to ask of Major General Grey's intention with regards to them. A requisition was quickly presented to them demanding the arms of the militia, the public money, three hundred oxen and ten thousand sheep.

EARLY PICTURE OF FORT PHOENIX
Loaned by Stanley Tripp of Fairhaven.

They promised these articles be delivered without delay. However, afterwards, it was found necessary by Grey to send a small detachment into the island and detain the deputed inhabitants for a time in order to make them comply with their demand. The 12th, 13th and 14th were employed in embarking cattle and sheep on board the British fleet, and destroying some salt works, as well as burning and taking in the inlets what vessels and boats could be found, and in receiving the arms of the militia. On the 15th the fleet left Martha's Vineyard and after sustaining the next day a very severe gale of wind arrived the 17th at White Stone, New York, without any material damaged.

The following is a report on the killed, wounded and missing of the detachment under the command of Major General Grey: 1st battalion of light infantry, 1 wounded, 3 missing; 1st battalion grenadiers, 1 killed,

The enemy's losses, which to our knowledge, Grey went on, was an officer and three men killed by advanced parties of light infantry, who, on receiving a fire from the enclosures (Fort Phoenix), rushed in with their bayonets. Sixteen were brought prisoners from Bedford, to exchange for that number missing from the troops.

WHAT'S NEW IN SCIENCE?

Radioisotope-powered "long johns" for deep-sea divers are being tested by the Navy. Plutonium-238, a by-product of the restoration of nuclear fuel, is used to heat water passed through a net-like garment worn under the diver's rubber "wet suit."

Also related to the underwater world is project "BOTTOMFIX," a manned habitat from which experiments could be conducted at depths of more than 12,000 feet. Preliminary studies have already been conducted under conditions equivalent to depths of 4,000 feet.

In another area of advanced work, scientists have succeeded, at least in part, in their quest to outdo Nature. They have developed "pure" iron. Found only in the laboratory, the tiny iron crystals have a strength up to two million pounds per square inch. They are being used to strengthen alloys in much the same way steel reinforces concrete.

Cookie Sale Ends Sat.!

Annual sale of Girl Scout cookies is in progress this week all over the country. Junior and Cadette Scouts in Mattapoisett are attempting to give everyone in Mattapoisett the opportunity to order cookies.

Over one-third of the price of the cookies stays in the Neighborhood to help finance troop activities throughout the year, and to help defray the cost of summer camping for individuals.

Cookie sales also assist the Council in maintaining and improving camp facilities throughout the Council. The International Friendship Exchange program also benefits.

Anyone who wishes to support these endeavors, and who has not been approached, is asked to call Mrs. Gordon Larcom, neighborhood cookie chairman, or Mrs. George Silsby, and a "smiling salesman" will be sent to take the order.

Sale ends Saturday and no orders will be taken after that date. Delivery and payment will be made the week of March 10th.

Whether you wear it for campus or career, contemplation or syncopation, above skirt or trousers–this shirt stand-out of the season – McCall's Pattern #9460 – will give you go-everywhere cool.

Make it either with the open Nehru collar and flared sleeves or in the longer version, buttoned at the collar and cuffs. Or stitch up one of each in your choice of printed silks, cottons, crepe, knits, gabardine, satin, shantung, velveteen or velvets.

HOW TO CUT HEAT COSTS:
5 tips that can help you get more warmth from your heating oil dollars

1. Check your thermostat location. If your thermostat is in a stairwell, on an outside wall or near an outside entrance, it may cause your burner to operate more often than necessary. It can be moved for you at little cost.

2. Shut off radiators or registers in rooms that aren't in regular use.

3. When fireplaces are not in use, make sure dampers are securely shut.

4. Let us clean and adjust your oil burner. Then help keep it clean by using Shell Heating Oil.

5. Close off unused or rarely used rooms.
